PLANO HIGH SCHOOL

PLANO, TEXAS

FOREWORD

As we are all aware, many changes have taken place in our school during the past year. The 1963 PLANONIAN staff has endeavored to bring to you a book that will hold many memories and that will serve as a record of your many happy and exciting experiences shared with your fellow classmates during this year of high school.

Whether this is your first or last year in high school, our hope is that you will cherish your 1963 PLANONIAN.

MR. GLENN ROGERS

Because, during your teaching career in Plano, you have rendered every service to uphold the spirit of Plano High School;

Because you have been loyal to each student and teacher of our school;

Because you have given unselfishly of your time and effort to promote extracurricular activities, as well as scholastic achievement;

Because we appreciate all you have done for Plano High School, we, the annual staff, wish to dedicate this 1963 edition of the PLANONIAN to you, Mr. Glenn Rogers.

Chapter 3

IN THE BEGINNINGS OF GOVERNMENT UNITED STATES

The roots of American government reach deep into the past. The system of government did not suddenly spring into being as at the wave of some political magician's wand. Nor was it pulled out of thin air by the

The Colonial Period

Our English Heritage. The French, Spanish, Dutch, Norwegian, and other Europeans settled in parts of what was to become the United States. But it was the English who came in the largest numbers. And it was the English who came to control the thirteen colonies that stretched for 1300 miles along the Atlantic seaboard.

These early pioneers who shaped the wilderness and fought off the Indians had to hack out their own methods of future in the New World. But they came here to enjoy the rights of government

Founding fathers at Philadelphia in the summer of 1787. Rather, it was developed through long centuries of struggle. English law, customs, and political habits and beliefs were brought to America by the English colonists. These people were not willing to give up the rights they had known in England. They were determined to carry with them to the New World the principles of government and the rights of liberty that they had learned to cherish.

SETTLERS AT WORK

Early Americans had to live together in harmony, or they would not survive. This was called "government in order to live," the beginning of the government today.

of which are to be found today county, borough, jury, sheriff, coroner, and justice of the peace, for example. And all of these were well-known in England long before the first Englishman ever heard of America.

(2) The Twin Concepts of Limited Government and Civil Liberties. They brought with them, too, the twin ideas of limited government and civil liberties. That is, that governments in free all powerful, that government is limited in what it may do, and, especially, that it is limited in the extent that each man has certain rights that government cannot injure or take away. These great principles of freedom were proclaimed in such historic English documents as the Magna Carta in 1215, the Petition of Right in 1628, and the Bill of Rights and the Act of Toleration of 1689.

(3) The Concept of Representative Government. A third vitally important concept brought to America in English ships was that of representative government. For centuries there had been developing in England the

Dear Penny, (Penelope) Girl: I'm not going to fill that word in because you are a ____. It might not be what you expected. You can imagine anything you want to fill it in. I want you to be a real nice girl and make good grades all the time. We have had a lot of good times together and I hope we have a lot more.

Set 'em shus' mere vegas.

"Benton"

You are a real great guy. Stay that way, if you can; good luck, you need it

Good luck,
Jerry

Penny,

We have really had fun together these past years! I hope we can have many more! Since our likes are the same we can really have a good time! (Horses) Keep begging and pleading and some time you may get one! (I hope!) Your wonderful personality and your sweet smile will take you a long. Your talents are very numerous, especially your drawing of horses! This summer I hope we can get together and do a lot of riding! I wish you the best of luck that the world can offer!

Love,
Charlotte

Well, do you remember last year at this time we were going together. We had alot of fun together - Didn't we???

Gene, I guess that you can tell how everybody is so crazy about you. You really are a sweet kid who is going to go real far in life. You have many great talents whether you know it or not.

Do you remember the day you, Judy, and I played baseball - I'll always remember you on that day. You were the sweetest and best sport I've ever hope to see. You sure did go through alot that day. - And all through the summer when everybody would come over to my house and have fun - or tell jokes !! We really had fun.

Whether you know it or not you are a very cute and sweet boy who is going to be good in everything he tries.

I've known you for about 5 or 6 years - and we've had disagreements and such but let's forget those - O.K. Always think of me - Whenever you have no one to talk to and are lonesome - Come to me - I'm always talking !!!!! (Ha! Ha!)

I didn't mean to take a whole page but I nearly did.

Gene, good luck and best wishes in life.

Be sweet and always remember me - !!!

P.S. You sure are like helpful !!!!!

- Love ya -

Ingrid
